

Exam Date: August 2026

GARP ID: 2549985

Dear Shrish Kumar Singhal,

Congratulations! You passed the Financial Risk Manager (FRM[®]) Exam Part I.

On behalf of the Global Association of Risk Professionals (GARP), GARP's Board of Trustees, and the FRM Advisory Committee, we congratulate you on passing the FRM Exam Part I, a significant milestone in earning the FRM designation. For a detailed analysis of your exam results, including information about your individual performance relative to all other candidates who sat for the FRM Exam Part I in the same exam administration, please go to "My Programs" for your quartile rankings.

Passing the FRM Exam Part I is an indication of your commitment to mastering knowledge of financial risk management and demonstrates that you have many of the valuable skills and abilities required of a financial risk manager. We encourage you to display your FRM Exam Part I digital badge on your professional or social networks, blogs, or website.

Reminder - now that you have passed the FRM Exam Part I, continue on your path to becoming an FRM-Certified Professional by registering for the FRM Exam Part II. Registration for the FRM Exam Part II is now open, with discounted rates available for early registration.

We also encourage you to maintain your GARP Individual Membership and take advantage of special member benefits that include access to exclusive Risk Insights articles, an archive of ondemand webcasts, local Chapter meetings, and event recordings in our Member Multimedia Library, and professional networking opportunities. Learn more about membership: ACCESS BENEFITS

As a valuable member of the GARP risk community, we wish you continued success and offer our ongoing support as you continue your journey toward becoming an FRM-Certified Professional.

Sincerely yours,

William May
Managing Director,
Global Head of Certifications and Educational Programs

